Dear Parents/Carers,

Re: School Closure

I was hoping to be able to say 'Happy New Year' and welcome everyone back to school. Sadly, we now face a very difficult period since Boris Johnson closed schools, effective immediately.

Unfortunately, we will be unable to open school for any children tomorrow to enable the staff and myself to make effective arrangements, ready to reopen to the children of critical workers on Wednesday.

Further details about the information we need from key workers will follow tomorrow morning.

Teachers will coordinate and upload the home learning tomorrow, ready for children to begin by the afternoon. They will also send an email to each year group with additional details.

As I have said before, I understand how hard it is balancing work and family life and know this brings additional pressure. Please be assured that we will try to help wherever we can.

Thank you again for your fantastic support throughout this highly unusual and difficult time.

Take care and stay safe.

Yours sincerely,

D Hugill
